—The new Methodist Church at Franklin will be dedicated to-morrow, Bishop Simpson officiating.

—The impetuosity with which men and boys ride velocipedes over the sidewalks at all hours of the day, hazarding the safety of pedestrians, and the general complaint made by our citizens against the practice, have induced the Common Council to prohibit it by resolution, and it will be the duty of the proper officers to see it strictly enforced.

—Mr. L. H. Metcalf, editor of the Meadville Journal, is announced as a candidate for County Treasurer. Mr. Metcalf enlisted as a private soldier during the war, and not only lost his leg in the service of his country, but endured six months confinement in a rebel dungeon. We have observed in former political contests, that our ex-logged soldiers usually make a better "rump" for official honors than most of their two-legged competitors.

—The anniversary of Lee's surrender was observed at Meadville on the 9th inst., by a social meeting of the G. and A. Army of the Republic, and a collation at the hall. Speeches were made by Col. McCoy, Capt. Davis, and others, songs were sung and camp stories related, and at the close, Commander Hoffman announced that the G. A. R. of Meadville would decorate the graves of deceased comrades on the 20th of May.

—Ezekiel S. Johnson, a brother of Hon. H. C. Johnson of Meadville, has received from the President the appointment of Associate Judge of New Mexico. The Republican says: "He is now editor of the Albuquerque Review, and his old friends here will be gratified to learn of his appointment. He is a man of integrity, and by long residence is familiar with the laws and customs of the Territory, and will undoubtedly prove an efficient and popular officer."

—We noticed recently the arrest and examination of several parties upon a charge of stealing a large quantity of rope and other well fixtures from the well of Watson, Crocker & Wilson, at Kerr Hill, and removing the same to Pleasantville for their own use. The proof of the case was so positive that the defendants were held for trial, but the matter was subsequently adjusted by the accused paying for the plunder, and also all the costs of the investigation, the entire bill amounting to between $400 and $500.

Meeting of the Producers' Association.

A general meeting of the above named Association was held in Franklin yesterday. The meeting was called especially to take steps to prevent the tax bill from becoming a law, and as the bill was defeated in the Senate the day previous, there was no need of any further proceedings, and consequently but little business of general importance was transacted. The report of the committee which was appointed at the last meeting to prepare reasons why Petroleum should not be taxed, as proposed, was read, and, on motion, received, and the committee discharged. A report was made from the committee of Fifteen on right of way for an Oil Producers' Transportation Company, stating that present appearances indicated that the right of way over all the lands in the oil region could be obtained much more easily and at less cost than was anticipated. The report was received, and the committee continued. The meeting adjourned shortly afterward.

Grand Lodge Session, J. O. T., SCHANTON, Pa., April 13, 1869.

Advising Brethren:

Please permit an oil friend to say to his friends, through your paper, that the next annual session of the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Good Templars of Pennsylvania will come in the city of Scranton, on the day the 8th of May, A.D. 1869. — As in the Order of Good Templars is especially strong in the oil regions, and it is safe to suppose that we will be a full and earnest delegation from that important section at the coming Grand Lodge.

The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania is convened at Mansfield, Tioga county, on the 28th of Dec., 1868. When in Tioga county, in December, I saw the house in which the session was held. The Order was then in a prospereous week and ascene everywhere; it is now the strongest moral association in the world. The Grand Lodge in British America and the United States, and it has already a large number of lodges in the oil regions.

Property of J. F. Heister, at suit of R. Cohn and two-fourths interest in Salina, Cambria county, with dwelling and blacksmith shop.

Property of John J. McBride, at suit of John Watson, Guardian of the heirs of R. Cohn, deceased. Sixty-six acres in President township.

Property of J. W. McDonald, at suit of John Peterman—Defendant's interest in two hundred acres, unimproved, situated in Jackson township.

Property of H. C. Culham and H. B. Culham, at suit of Wm. T. Tracy, trustee of National Bank of Bradford county. Thirty-eight hundred acres of timber land in hundred and sixteen acres in Conemaugh township.

Property of E. Culham, at suit of James & Brinkerhoff, in Conemaugh, Pa., 100 acres, with a one and a half story house.

Property of D. C. Culham, at suit of J. P. Lewis—One hundred and ten acres in Sycamore township, about 70 acres cleared, 100 houses, log and stone steam engine and boiler.

Property of Wm. L. Sampson, at suit of H. McClinton and W. H. Kunkle, Highgate, Conemaugh township, S. C. — One hundred and forty acres, situated in Conemaugh township, about 70 houses cleared, with stone dwelling and log barn.

Property of Wm. L. Sampson, at suit of H. McClinton and W. H. Kunkle, Highgate, Conemaugh township, S. C. — One hundred and forty acres, situated in Conemaugh township, about 70 houses cleared, with stone dwelling and log barn.

The Keystone Good Templar, for April 6, is an important circular appears from Hon. S. P. Chase, G. W. C. T., in reference to the coming Grand Lodge. We would advise the friends to have that circular read in all of the offices so that they may be informed respecting as to the organization, qualification, &c., of delegates to Grand Lodge.The Keystone Good Templar, the official organ of the Order, is now published weekly, edited by E. W. Wright, of C. T. — It is the organ of the Order of Good Templars of Pennsylvania, and it succeeds in capturing the public's heart. The contents in the paper are excellent, and the paper is well written.

The news of the strange occurrence spread rapidly through the neighborhood, the Courier was notified, and the body handed over to the family. How the case will terminate is not known. The deceased was a small farmer, and was looked upon with suspicion by the community.

A CANON.—Mr. H. H. Thomas, desires to inform the public that he exploded a torpedo of his own invention, in Summit Well No. 1, Woodford, for E. Crocker, Jr., on the 14th inst., and raised the property from seven to two hundred barrels. Mr. Thomas will open an office soon where he may be consulted on torpedo matters.

PROF. ANDERSON.—This great wizard continues to draw crowded houses, and his programme is more varied and interesting each evening. To-night is his last night. A large dialog-room table and sixty dollars in money constitute the principal gifts. Go early and secure your seats.

SEAL OLEUM.—Doctor Jackson will remain in the city only a few days longer, and during his sojourn invites all who wish to try the curative effects of his wonderful liniment, known as "Seal-Oleum," to call at the front rooms, under the HERALD office. The live seal will be on exhibition free all day and in the evening.

The Latest Confession.

Mrs. Camilla Twitchell has made a confession or statement relative to the homicide of Mrs. Hill, her mother. It is hard to credit the ridiculous statements of Mrs. Twitchell. The former said that neither had anything to do with the murder. Mrs. Twitchell says that her late husband frequently put slips of paper in her hand when she visited his cell, beseeching her to make certain disclosures to save him from the gallows, but she persistently refused to do so, because she says she knew nothing, and, therefore, had nothing to make public. We may believe Mrs. Twitchell innocent, but how shall we make the statements of husband and wife agree?

Mrs. Twitchell says that George and herself were out carriage riding in the afternoon, and came home about six o'clock. After supper they retired, Mrs. Hill walking up with her. When she got to bed her mother left and went down stairs, shortly after which she fell asleep; George, however, coming up before this. She then knew nothing until awoken by the clanging of the front door bell. She heard her husband get up and answer the bell, and was shortly called up by the cries of Sarah Campbell; then she went down stairs and saw the dead body of her mother, which much astonished and shocked her.

The after occurrences have been so often repeated as to tire the public mind. She says that neither her husband nor herself knew anything about the murder, but that notwithstanding the examinations of her husband she was willing to spend all her money to save him. When she visited him at the prison he slipped into her hands pieces of paper containing certain confessions he wished her to make exonerating him and incriminating herself. This she refused to do, and hence his accusation of her. Of all the statements that have been made this one of Mrs. Twitchell is the weakest. It is not worthy of notice except as a newspaper sensation.

THE BURNING OF FORESTHILL AT PITTSBURGH.—The telegraph has already reported the burning of the extensive refinery at Pittsburgh. The following additional particulars we obtain from the Pittsburgh Republican of Thursday.

A great explosion in the morning, an explosion occurred at a gas-hold, and the immediate communication to the bleaching pens, containing three thousand barrels of oil, the building was soon enveloped in flames. The flames spread to a large iron tank, containing eight thousand barrels of distillate oil, which was rapidly consumed. The firemen were speedily expected in pumping water from the river, were not in time to save the building, which was burned to the ground.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

On motion, the regular order of business was dispensed with.

Mr. Lowman, Chairman of Fire Committee, made a report in relation to H. M. Hall's building on Franklin street, and referred the matter back to the Council.

The matter was then generally discussed, and on motion of Mr. Ross, seconded by Mr. McCrumb, it was voted to let the building be let to Mr. Hall, and that Mr. Hall be not permitted to proceed with the erection of his building on Franklin street, until he shall have executed a bond in the sum of $500, that said building shall strictly conform to the requirements and specifications of the ordinance establishing the limits, and which shall moreover have executed a bond, acknowledging the city of Titusville from all damages which may be incurred by him on account of the removal or subdivision of any building, or any other damage done to the building, and will be bound to pay a sum of $500 days from the 16th instant.

The resolution was adopted.

On motion adj. m.
